VOLUME III

Published by the

Student Council of the Ayden High School

Ayden, North Carolina

DEDICATION

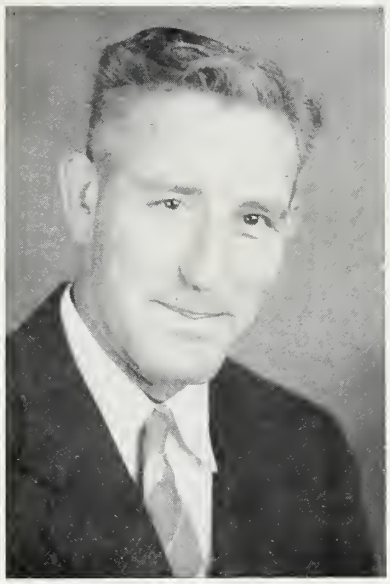
To Miss Virginia Belle Cooper who is as symbolic of Ayden High School as are its colors—Maroon and White.

During the many years that she has been teaching music, "Miss Virginia Belle" has won a place in the hearts of all students and teachers. She has endeared herself to those who know her.

As the head of the Music Department in the Ayden Schools, she has given music lessons to many students. She has also graciously given of her time and ability to numerous musical activities. For the last several years she has been the Director of the High School Chorus.

Therefore THE WHEEL of 1947 is lovingly dedicated to her for her outstanding kindness, interest and loyalty.

HONORABLE MENTION



Honorable Mention goes this year to Mr. R. C. Freeman who was with us only a short time, but whom we learned to depend upon, honor and love. It was truly a great loss for us when he was called back to the service of his country.

CLASS HISTORY '47

As we roll back the curtain of time it was in the year 1935-36 that a group of seventy-seven six-year-olds began one of the greatest adventures of their lives. That adventure started our school days.

In our first four years we learned the multiplication tables, a bit of geography and history and how to read fluently. In the fifth grade the privilege of going to the store or up town at recess and lunch hours was granted because we were now students in the High School building.

The sixth grade passed uneventfully, followed by the seventh grade to which we had long been looking forward with its privilege of graduating into High School. However this was not to be as we were to be the first class to graduate from twelve grades.

The prospect of being upstairs thrilled us. There were many strange things; such as going to different rooms for our classes, joining clubs and sitting in the High School section for chapel.

During our Freshman year we strove to co-operate with the school and town in all their efforts to win World War II. We bought stamps and supported all the drives and campaigns for the gathering of scrap paper, metal, tin cans and razor blades.

In our Sophomore year we played the role of Juniors as there were none that year. Our activities included a Sophomore-Senior Banquet financed with money raised from chances sold for cakes and a square dance.

It was this year that the Sophomores acted as marshalls at the graduation exercises. Our marshalls were: Ann Cannon, Peggy Jean Hart, Martha Fleming, Lois Ann Kilpatrick and Gene Lang. We remember all this with a proud glow of satisfaction because to us it was perfect in every way.

Then we became Juniors in actuality and were given a Prom by the Sophomore Class. It was an experience never to be forgotten.

Now at last we are Seniors; only twenty-nine of the original seventy-seven are left. These twenty-nine are: Hilliard Kinlaw, President; L. L. Kittrell, Vice-President; John C. Andrews, Secretary; Peggy Jean Hart, Treasurer; Ann Cannon, Reporter; Edna Ruth Cox, Nina Cox, Martha Fleming, Evelyn Garris, Bertha Mae Harris, Mary Grace Holland, Betsy Jolly, Lois Ann Kilpatrick, Shirly Kinlaw, Beverly McLohon, Phoebe Sawyer, Hilda Sugg, Richard Cannon, Charles Croom, Franklin Harrington, Rudolph James, Aulcy Lee Jones, Gene Lang, Aubrey Lee Little, Rex Smith, Ronald Smith, J. L. Stocks, Calvin Stokes, Walter Lee Williams.

Members of our class have taken an important part in Basketball and Football. We are having Football this year for the first time since the war. Other activities include the Student Council, Hi-Y, Tri Hi-Y, Beta Club, Chorus and others which have become a part of our school life. We are still looking forward to our Senior Play, Junior-Senior Banquet, Class Day and a trip to Washington, D. C.

We are proud of the record we have made for ourselves and Ayden High School. We are taking our place on the "Road of Life" with assurance, but there always will be with us a tender memory for student High School Days.

Peggy Jean Hart,
Historian.

PROPHECY

1. Charles Croom, the former star fullback of the New York Yankees, has recently received the commission of Admiral in the United States Navy.
2. Rex Smith is married to the former Mary Alice Brown and he is the largest tobacco farmer in the South.
3. Edna Ruth Cox is private secretary to the well known criminal lawyer, Bobby Eure.
4. Nina Cox has just added another link to her chain of beauty salons. She is known over this country for discovering a new method of peroxiding the hair.
5. Calvin Stokes is now head of the State Department of Agriculture, following his grand work as instructor in his former High School.
6. Rudolph James and his wife, the former Frances Johnson, have just returned from a tour of the United States and Europe.
7. John C. Andrews is now editor of the "New York Daily Times." Since he has been in charge, the circulation of the Times has incrased over 1,000,000.
8. Ann Cannon, though married, is a leading journalist and author of the year's best seller "I Got My Man."
9. Beverly McLohon has just received the position of Superintendent of Nurses at Johns Hopkins.
10. Hilliard Kinlaw, Army's brilliant football coach, is still leading his undefeated team of 5 years to glorious victories.
11. Aubrey L. Little, owner and operator of the Big Drip Dairies, is said to be the richest dairy man in the world. He will retire shortly at the age of 30.
12. Lois Ann Kilpatrick is known as the greatest orator of all times. She has just finished a world wide tour.
13. Ronald Smith is now playing the role of Hamlet. He is considered by the critics to be a second John Barrymore, and one of the greatest lovers of all times.

15. Martha Fleming has just been appointed Secretary of the Treasury following her outstanding work as designer of the new $5 Bill.
16. Franklin Harrington is now pitcher for the New York Yankees. He is the greatest left-handed pitcher since Newhouser.
17. Lieutenant Commander Aulcy Lee Jones has just returned from a two weeks' voyage around the world—setting a new world record.
18. Gene Lang, noted psychiatrist, has just finished his latest book, "Doing What Comes Naturally."
19. J. L. Stocks and Walter Lee Williams are owners of the largest tobacco warehouses in the South.
20. L. L. Kittrell is now a very famous dentist and known all over the world for his painless methods in dentistry.
21. Evelyn Garris is now the socially prominent wife of North Carolina's promising young governor.
22. Richard Cannon has just received the position of president of the Lyres and Megget Tobacco Company.
23. Hilda Sugg has just been appointed director of the "White Stocking School of Nursing" in New York City.
24. Mary Grace Holland's wedding was the biggest social event of the year. Her husband is famous for his outstanding work in photography.
25. Peggy Jean Hart is now Dean of Women at Carolina, and she is beloved by all there.
26. Betsy Jolly has just received the position of secretary to the Ambassador of the United States to Great Britain.
27. Phoebe Sawyer is now head librarian of the Congressional Library of the United States.
28. Bertha Mae Harris is now serving as the first woman President of the Federal Reserve Bank in Richmond. She began her career in the local bank of Ayden.

—Beverly McLohon.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, The Senior Class of 1947, after completing twelve successful and happy years of school do hereby leave these last bequests, sincerely hoping that the incoming seniors may profit from them:

Article 1—The Senior Class of 1947, leaves to all the other classes which follow them, the extra grade which was presented especially to them.

Article 2—To Mr. Johnson, our principal, we wish to leave a very successful basketball team.

Article 3—To the teachers, we would like to leave the memory of our Senior class, since we know that they will miss us.

Article 4—To the students, we leave all the high school teachers.

And to the individual juniors, the Seniors would like to will something from each of them.

Item 1—To John Clark Nobles, Evelyn Garris wills her ability to be quiet. Evelyn feels sure that Johnny will appreciate this, and use it to his advantage.

Item 2—By special request, Richard Cannon leaves to Phyllis McLawhorn his "pretty" eyes.

Item 3—Rudolph James wills the memory of the "good times" they have had, to Frances Johnson.

Item 4—Since Eliza Jenkins is so quiet in school, Betsy Jolly leaves her, "the gift of gab" which she possesses.

Item 5—John C. Andrews wills to Evonne McLawhorn, his wonderful sense of humor. Johnny hopes that this will make Evonne happy so that she may always be smiling.

Item 6—Rex Smith and J. L. Stocks leave to Mr. Copeland, the "pleasant" memory of his Physics classes.

Item 7—Ronald Smith wills his dry wit to Goodwin Moore, since Goody seems to have already had a few lessons in this type of joking.

Item 8—To Eugene Harris, L. L. Kittrell leaves his ability to play football, in hopes Gene will play more football next year.

Item 9—Bertha Mae Harris wills her ability to make friends to Peggy Hart.

Item 10—Gene Lang leaves his ability to understand "things" on class to Betty Lou Worthington. He also wishes to leave the memory of their trip to Greenville to get ads for the annual.

Item 11—To Hannah Heath, Mary Grace Holland leaves her subdued voice, in hopes that it will create a happy medium.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Captain

Janice Turnage

The girls' basketball team under the direction of Coach E. F. Johnson has enjoyed a very good season this year.

The forwards: Martha Fleming, Helen Joyce Whitehurst, and Janice Turnage have been ringing up the points. The guards: Patricia Jackson, Hannah Heath, and Evonne McLawhorn have been doing excellent work. The other players are Betty Lou Worthington, Marion Skinner, Mary Grace Holland, Peggy Hart, Barbara Little, Shirley Kinlaw, Margaret C. Andrews, Delma Worthington, Margie Davenport, June Stokes, and Louise McLawhorn.

The girls' basketball team and the school wish to thank Coach Johnson for giving his energy and time to the team.

Seven girls wearing white sweaters and maroon colored skirts have been a necessity and an inspiration to our football team. They have kept our spirits and our scores high.

CAMPUS SCENES

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Item 12—Calvin Stokes wills his love for driving all vehicles to Ann Conklin.

Item 13—To Russell Wooten, Lois Ann Kilpatrick leaves her ability to make oral speeches. Lois hopes that Russell will write and present as good a speech as she did.

Item 14—Franklin Harrington leaves some of his height to Edward Earl Cox, since Edward Earl read that he should be taller than the girls whom he kisses.

Item 15—To Bill Jackson, Martha Fleming leaves her A's on English, since Bill needs a few.

Item 16—Auley Lee Jones leaves to J. W. Stocks his love for dancing since J. W. doesn't especially like to dance.

Item 17—Peggy Jean Hart wills her good grades on all subjects to Marion Skinner, so that Marion won't have much homework next year.

Item 18—Hilliard Kinlaw leaves his ability to play all sports well, to Marvin Baldree, Jr.

Item 19—Charles Croom wills the ability that he has to create cute sayings to Marilyn Hardee.

Item 20—To Patricia Jackson, Ann Cannon leaves her ability as a leader of all activities.

Item 21—Aubrey Lee Little wills to Typsey and Ray Garris his good grades, since Aubrey feels that this will keep Typsey and Ray from studying so hard.

Item 22—To Marie Worthington, Hilda Sugg leaves her ability to move fast.

Item 23—Nina Cox wills to Elizabeth Conway her love for Ayden High School.

Item 24—To Effie Stocks, Phoebe Sawyer leaves her love for Bookkeeping.

Item 25—Edna Ruth Cox wills her admiration for all boys to Kit Dawson and Genevieve Taylor.

Item 26—To Douglas Stocks, Walter Lee Williams leaves all he knows about baseball since he won't be here to show what he can do.

Item 27—Shirley Kinlaw wills to Mr. Johnson's basketball team, all the "hundreds" of points she has made playing basketball this year.

In this way we do leave all our worthwhile possessions: We are sure that we will be remembered, and we hope that the Juniors use these gifts which we have left them, to their advantage.
